Components of Effective Fluency Instruction

Fluency is the ability to read accurately, quickly, expressively, with good phrasing, AND with good comprehension. A recent study sponsored by the U.S. Department of Education found that fourth grade students’ oral reading fluency is a strong predictor of silent reading comprehension. Moreover, the same study found that nearly half of the fourth graders studied had not achieved even a minimally acceptable level of reading fluency. Fortunately, a solid body of evidence suggests that fluency can be taught and that effective instruction in fluency leads to overall improvements in reading.

Fluency Accuracy and Automaticity: Assessment and Norms

Accuracy
Calculation: Total number of words read correct divided by Total words read (correct or corrected + uncorrected errors). Example: 137 words read correct / 145 total words read (137 correct + 8 uncorrected errors) = 94.5% correct.

Interpretation:
99% Correct: Independent Level Reading
95% Correct: Instructional Level Reading
90% Correct: Frustration Level Reading

Procedure: Have students read orally for one minute from curriculum material at their grade level. Ask students to read in their normal manner, not overly fast or slow. Administer reading probes at least three times per year.

Scoring: Count number of words correctly in the one minute period. Include errors corrected in the one minute period.

Analysis and Interpretation: Students reading significantly below the stated norms (20% or more below norms) are at risk in reading decoding and/or fluency and should be considered for further assessment and diagnosis.

NAEP Oral Reading Fluency Scale

4. Reads primarily in larger, meaningful phrase groups. Although some regressions, repetitions, and deviations from the text may be present, these do not appear to detract from the overall structure of the story. Preservation of the author’s syntax is consistent. Some or most of the story is read with expressive interpretation. Reads at an appropriate rate.

3. Reads primarily in three- and four-word phrase groups. Some smaller groupings may be present. However, the majority of phrasing seems appropriate and preserves the syntax of the author. Little or no expressive interpretation is present. Reader attempts to read expressively and some of the story is read with expression. Generally reads at an appropriate rate.

2. Reads primarily in two-word phrase groups with some three- and four-word groupings. Some word-by-word reading may be present. Word groupings may seem awkward and unrelated to the larger context of the sentence or passage. A small portion of the text is read with expressive interpretation. Reads significant sections of the text excessively slow or fast.

1. Reads primarily word-by-word. Occasional two-word or three-word phrases may occur – but these are infrequent and/or they do not preserve meaningful syntax. Lacks expressive interpretation. Reads text excessively slow. A score of 1 should also be given to a student who reads with excessive speed, ignoring punctuation and other phrase boundaries, and reads with little or no expression.

Word Harvesting

Whenever reading to your students, reciting a poem, singing a song, or playing a word game in your class if you or your students notice any interesting words, have them call out the words at the end of the read aloud or word game. Write the word on a daily word wall and talk about the meaning of the words and begin to use the words in your own oral language over the next several days. Encourage your students also to use the words in their oral and written language.

If you read to your students every day of the school year and harvest 5-6 words after each read aloud you will have exposed your students to 900-1180 new words over the course of a school year. That alone will have a significant impact on your students’ word knowledge. Since authors purposefully use interesting words in their writing, students will find a treasure trove of words in the materials that are read to them or that they read on their own.
Fry Instant Word List

There are the Fry 600 most often used words in reading and writing. The first 300 words represent about two-thirds of all the words students encounter in their reading. Students should be able to recognize these words instantly and accurately (ie., become part of their sight vocabularies) in order to read with fluency. We recommend, as a rule of thumb, that the 1st 100 words be mastered by the end of 1st grade and each succeeding group of 100 mastered by the end of each succeeding grade (ie., by the end of grade 6 all 600 words should be part of students’ sight vocabularies.)

IDIOMS – Some of the most challenging vocabulary for students.

The Story of Romeo and Juliet Told Through Sports Idioms

Right off of the bat, Romeo knew he was in love with Juliet. The problem was that across the board, the Capulets hated the Montagues. Romeo was behind the eight ball before he even had a chance to get the ball rolling. He knew it would be tough to score points with Juliet’s parents, but he didn’t throw in the towel quite yet. He danced with her at the Capulet’s ball, and their relationship was off and running. When Juliet’s cousin, Tybalt, saw them together, he blew the whistle on Romeo. Juliet’s father said that he would call the shots because it was his party, and Romeo was allowed to stay.

Romeo and Juliet dove right into a relationship and got married. It was smooth sailing for them until Tybalt killed Romeo’s friend Mercutio. Romeo had to level the playing field and get back at Tybalt, so he killed him. Romeo was down for the count when the Prince banished him. No one was in his corner except his love, Juliet. Defeated, he rolled with the punches and moved to Mantua.

His friend, Balthasar, wanted to touch base with him, but ended up throwing him a curve. Balthasar mistakenly thought Juliet was dead. Romeo couldn’t believe this was happening at this stage of the game; he was supposed to go get Juliet, and they were going to run away together. Romeo really dropped the ball after that. He lay down next to Juliet and took his own life. When Juliet awoke and saw her husband dead, she thought, “That’s the way the ball bounces,” and stabbed herself.

The parents of the young lovers were shocked by what had happened. The announcement of their children’s deaths had come out of left field. They decided to tackle the problem of their long feud and built statues in memory of their lost children.

Teaching Reading Fluency: Assisted Reading

Assisted reading refers to the notion that what a person cannot read fluently on his or her own, he or she can develop fluency when reading orally with another reader(s) who is more fluent.

Forms of Assisted Reading

1. Choral (Group) Reading

2. Paired Reading (Neurological Impress Reading)

3. Audio-Assisted Reading

4. Captioned Video Text
PAIRED READING: HOW TO DO IT

Reading Together

1. You and your child both read the words out loud together. Read at the child’s speed. You are modeling good reading for your child.

2. As you read together, your child must read every word. To make sure your child is looking at the words, it will help if one of you points to the word you are both reading with a finger or card. It’s best if your child will do the pointing.

3. When a word is read incorrectly you just say the word and then your child immediately repeats the word.

4. Show interest in the book your child has chosen. Talk about the pictures. Talk about what’s in the book as your child goes through it. It’s best if you talk at the end of a page or section, or your child might lose track of the story. Ask what things might happen next. Listen to your child – don’t do all the talking.

Time

1. Try very hard to do Paired Reading every day for 5 minutes. If the student wants to read longer, a total of 15 minutes is long enough.

2. Select a time that’s good for both you and your child. Don’t make your child do Paired Reading when he/she really wants to do something else.

3. For days when you are not available, you may want to train someone else to be a substitute. Grandparents, older brothers and sisters, aunts, baby-sitters can be excellent reading role models, too.

Place

1. Try to find a place that’s quiet. Children are easily distracted by noise. Turn off the T.V., radio, and stereo.

2. Try to find a place that’s private. No one else should be in the room. Many families find this is a great opportunity for one parent to spend time with just one child.

3. Try to find a place that’s comfortable so both readers can concentrate on the story without having to shift around. Try to associate warm and snuggly feelings with reading.
Reading Alone

1. When you are reading together and child feels confident, your child might want to read alone. You should agree on a way for him/her to signal you to stop reading along. This could be a knock, squeeze, or tap with the elbow. (Saying “be quiet” or similar words might make your child lose track of the meaning of the story.)

When signaled, you immediately stop reading aloud and feel glad that your child wants to be an independent reader.

2. When the student comes to an unknown word, wait five seconds to allow time for word attack skills to be used. If the word is mastered, be sure to praise the accomplishment. However, if the student is unable to work it out after five seconds, you say the word. Then the child repeats the word and both of you read together out loud until the next signal to read alone.

If a word is misread, you say the word correctly; the student repeats the word; and both of you read out loud together until the child signals again.

3. You may not be able to finish a book or chapter in one sitting. When you start the next day, briefly discuss what happened so far in the story and start reading where you left off.

4. If you finish a book before the end of the time, read the book again. Repeated reading is very good practice. It builds confidence and comprehension.

5. If the book has not been completed by the end of the week, it’s O.K. The child is not expected to read every book alone. The focus of Paired Reading is enjoyment and reading together.

Audio Assisted Reading: Evidence-Based Instruction for Improving Reading Fluency and Overall Reading Proficiency

Reading research indicates that oral-assisted reading techniques, reading while listening to a fluent reading of the same text by another reading, can lead to extraordinary gains in reading fluency and overall reading achievement (Kuhn & Stahl, 2001; Topping, 1995).

Taped-Assisted reading is a version of oral-assisted reading in which readers listen to a fluent rendering of the passage while reading it themselves. This approach to reading has a rich history and has been shown to be especially effective with students experiencing severe difficulties in learning to read (e.g. Carbo, 1978a, 1978b, 1981; Chomsky, 1976). More recent international research has affirmed the effectiveness of tape-assisted reading to improve students’ fluency and general reading proficiency:

- In a 27 week intervention, students received a daily 15-25 minute instructional intervention in which they read along silently while listening to the same passages on tape presented through a personal cassette recorder. Students read and listened to passages repeatedly until they felt they could read the text fluently on their own. Average student gain in the program was 2.2 years; some students made as much as 4 years progress in reading during the ¾ of a year intervention. Over half the students were reading above their assigned grade level at the end of the intervention. Moreover, students maintained their gains in reading over a six week vacation. (Pluck, 1995)

- Tape-assisted reading was found to have a facilitative effect on the reading accuracy, fluency, confidence, and overall progress of ELL readers in school and at home. (Blum, Koskinen, et al, 1995; Koskinen, Blum, et al., 1999).

- A study of middle school students from non-English speaking backgrounds made 14 months progress in reading after using a tape-assisted program for 2 months. (Langford, 2001)

- A study of 29 elementary and middle grade students, half of whom were from non-English speaking background, employed tape-assisted reading in a 4.5 month intervention. Teachers or teacher-aides worked with students using a tape-assisted program. In some schools students worked in their classrooms, in others they were pulled out to special rooms to implement the tape-assisted program. Students practiced their assigned passages (usually 6-8 times) while they listened to the fluent renderings of the texts on tape until they were able to read the text fluently without assistance. When one text was mastered, students moved on to a more challenging text. Students were found to have made gains of over 2 years in overall reading achievement. Spelling improved by nearly a year and oral language also improved by nearly 1.5 years. English speaking and ELL students both made similar gains in reading achievement. Gains were also reported for students attitude toward reading and teachers’ ratings of students classroom reading performance. (Nader & Elley, 2002)

Using Tape-Assisted Readings in Elementary and Middle Schools

The evidence clearly supports the use of tape-assisted reading methods and materials with students from the primary through middle grades. Effectiveness of extraordinary reading achievement has been shown for struggling readers and readers who are English Language Learners. Moreover, effectiveness of Tape-Assisted programs have been demonstrated in relatively short periods of implementation (e.g. 8-27 weeks).

Interestingly, the research also supports a variety of methods of implementation, from in-classroom programs, pull-out programs, and using tape-assisted reading programs at home. Programs have been successfully run by teachers, aides, and parents in the home. Tape-assisted reading programs can be implemented as a supplement to existing mainline reading programs or as the main program itself.
Teaching Reading Fluency: Repeated Reading

Repeated readings refer to the instructional practice of repeatedly reading one passage (50-250 words) until the reader can read it fluently (achieving some predetermined level of automaticity and/or expression).

When readers practice a passage, they improve on the passage on which they practiced. However, improvement is also apparent on passages readers had not yet read!

Repeated readings works best and is most authentic when readers are given an opportunity to perform the texts they practice.

Repeated readings works best when readers are coached in their practice by a teacher, parent, or classmate who listens for expressiveness, phrasing, and appropriate rate, provides encouragement, and gives assistance when needed.
Repeated (Practiced) Reading of Authentic Texts

Look for texts that can be interpreted orally, that have a strong sense of voice. Look for texts that can be performed for an audience. These are texts that need to be rehearsed (practiced):

O Captain! My Captain!

Although he is never mentioned by name,
Abraham Lincoln is the subject of this and the following poem. Lincoln was assassinated on April 14, 1865, less than a week after the war had ended.
This poem is one of Whitman's few poems written in meter and rhyme.

O Captain! my Captain!
our fearful trip is done,
The ship has weather'd every rack, the prize we sought is won,
The port is near, the bells I hear, the people all exulting,
While follow eyes the steady keel, the vessel grim and daring;
But O heart! heart! heart!
O the bleeding drops of red,
Where on the deck my Captain lies,
Fallen cold and dead.

IN FLANDERS FIELDS

In Flanders Fields the poppies blow
Between the crosses, row on row,
That mark our place, and in the sky
The larks, still bravely singing, fly
Scarce heard amid the guns below.
We are the Dead. Short days ago
We lived, felt dawn, saw sunset glow,
Loved and were loved, and now we lie
In Flanders fields.

Take up our quarrel with the foe:
To you from failing hands we throw
The torch; be yours to hold it high.
If ye break faith with us who die
We shall not sleep, though poppies grow
In Flanders fields.

General Douglas MacArthur's Farewell to West Point

Yours is the profession of arms, the will to win, the sure knowledge that in war there is no substitute for victory, that if you lose, the Nation will be destroyed, that the very obsession of your public service must be duty, honor, country.

The long, gray line has never failed us. Were you to do so, a million ghosts in olive drab, in brown khaki, in blue and gray, would rise from their white crosses, thundering those magic words: Duty, honor, country.

In my dreams I hear again the crash of guns, the rattle of musketry, the strange, mournful mutter of the battlefield. But in the evening of my memory always I come back to West Point. Always there echoes and re-echoes: Duty, honor, country.

Today marks my final roll call with you. But I want you to know that when I cross the river, my last conscious thoughts will be of the corps, and the corps, and the corps. I bid you farewell.

General Douglas MacArthur

Army Song

Over hill, over dale
As we hit the dusty trail,
And the Caissons go rolling along.
In and out, hear them shout,
Counter march and right about,
And the Caissons go rolling along.

Then it's hi! hi! hee!
In the field artillery,
Shout out your numbers
loud and strong,
For where'er you go,
You will always know
That the Caissons go rolling along.

You’re a Grand Old Flag

You’re a grand old flag
you’re a high-flying flag
And forever in peace may

You’re the emblem of
The land I love,
The home of the free and

Happy Hank played a prank
On his mom and dad.
They didn't like it.
He got spanked.
Now Happy Hank is sad.

Bikes are to ride
All of the day.
Places to go
So far away.
Sidewalks and paths
Places to stray.
Riding a bike
What a great way to play

Diddle diddle dumpling
My son Bob.
Skinned his knee
And began to sob.
Gave him a pickle
And corn on the cob
Diddle diddle dumpling
My son Bob.

I love to eat apples and more than a few
Early in the morning when they're covered with dew.
I love to eat apples when they're red and they're new
Crisp and sweet what a delight to chew

My friend Chester is a real pest
He pesters his sister and his sister's guest
He pesters them always never gives any rest
Oh my friend Chester is a real pest.

The Three Billy Goats Gruff

Parts: (6)—Little Billy Goat Gruff, Middle-Sized Billy Goat Gruff, Big Billy Goat Gruff, Troll, Narrators 1 and 2

Narrator 1: Welcome to our show. Today’s play is The Three Billy Goats Gruff.

Narrator 2: As Little Billy Goat Gruff strolls through the fields he sees a rickety, old bridge. On the other side of the bridge is a meadow with green, green grass and apple trees.

Little BGG: "I'm the littlest billy goat. I have two big brothers. I want to go across this bridge to eat some green, green grass and apples so that I can be big like my two brothers."

Narrator 1: Little Billy Goat Gruff starts across the bridge.

All (softly): "Trip, trap, trip, trap, trip, trap."

Narrator 2: Just as Little Billy Goat Gruff came to the middle of the bridge, an old troll popped up from underneath.

Troll: "Who is that walking on my bridge? Snort Snort"

Little BGG: "It's only me, Little Billy Goat Gruff."

Troll: "Arrrgh. I'm a big, bad troll and you are on my bridge. I'm going to eat you for my breakfast. Snort Snort"

Little BGG: "I just want to eat some green, green grass and apples in the meadow. Please don't eat me Mister Troll. I'm just a little billy goat. Wait until my brother comes along. He is much bigger and tastier than me."

Troll: "Bigger? Tastier? Well alright. I guess I will. Go ahead and cross the bridge. Arrrgh"

Little BGG: "Thank you very much, you great big, ugly old troll."

Troll: "What did you call me? Come back here! Grrrr"
Little BGG: “Bye!”
All (softly): "Trip, trap, trip, trap, trip, trap."

Narrator 1: Little Billy Goat Gruff ran across the bridge. He ate the green, green grass and apples. The troll went back under his bridge and went to sleep.

Narrator 2: Before long Middle-Size Billy Goat Gruff walks up to the rickety, old bridge. He too sees the meadow with the green, green grass and apple trees.

Middle BGG: "I'm the middle-size billy goat. I have a big brother and a little brother. I want to go across this bridge to eat some green, green grass and apples so that I can be big like my brother."

Narrator 1: Middle-Size Billy Goat Gruff starts across the bridge.

All: [A bit louder, as Middle BGG is bigger] "Trip, trap, trip, trap, trip, trap."

Narrator 2: Just as the Middle-Size Billy Goat Gruff came to the middle of the bridge, an old troll popped up from under the bridge.

Troll: "Grrrr. Who is that walking on my bridge? Arrrgh"

Middle BGG: "It is I, Middle-Size Billy Goat Gruff."

Troll: "Grrrr. I'm a big, bad troll and you are on my bridge. I'm going to eat you for my lunch. Snort Snort"

Middle BGG: "I just want to eat some green, green grass and apples in the meadow. Please don't eat me Mister Troll. I'm just a middle-size billy goat. Wait until my brother comes along. He is much bigger and much much tastier than I am."

Middle BGG: 'Thank you very much, you great big, really ugly and dirty old troll."

Troll: "What did you call me? Grrrr. Come back here right this very instant!"

Middle BGG: "Oh, Nothing. See ya!"
All (a bit louder): "Trip, trap, trip, trap, trip, trap."

Narrator 1: Middle-Size Billy Goat Gruff ran across the bridge. He ate the green, green grass and apples. The troll went back under his bridge and once again fell fast sleep.

Narrator 2: After a while, Big Billy Goat Gruff sees the rickety, old bridge. On the other side of the bridge is a meadow with green, green grass and apple trees.

Big BGG: "I'm the biggest billy goat. I have two brothers. I want to go across this bridge to eat some green, green grass and apples just as they did.

Narrator 1: So Big Billy Goat Gruff starts across the bridge.

All: [Even louder this time] "Trip, trap, trip, trap, trip, trap."

Narrator 2: Just as Big Billy Goat Gruff got to the middle of the bridge, an old troll popped up from under the bridge."

Troll: "Grrr. Who is that walking on my bridge?"

Big BGG: "It is I, Big Billy Goat Gruff."

Troll: "Grrrr. I'm a big, bad troll and you are on my bridge. I'm going to eat you for my supper. Snort Snort"

Big BGG: "Really" [SMILES AT AUDIENCE] 'Well then, come right on up here and have a feast then" [AGAIN GRINS AT AUDIENCE]

Narrator 1: The troll climbs onto the bridge. Big Billy Goat Gruff lowers his head and charges the troll! Big Billy Goat Gruff knocks the troll clean off the bridge and into the icy cold water!

Big BGG: "Brothers, that ugly old bully won't bother us again. I butted him with my horns and knocked him off the bridge and into the icy cold water. I've done my job and from now on we can come and go in peace. Now, I'm going to go and eat some of that green, green grass and some apples."
All (Loud): "Trip, trap, trip, trap, trip, trap."

Narrator 2: Big Billy Goat Gruff crosses the bridge and joins his brothers. He ate the green, green grass and apples.

Little Billy Goat: Munch, Munch, Munch.

Little and Middle Size Billy Goat: Munch, Munch Munch.

All Three Billy Goats: Munch, Munch, Munch. This green green grass is great for lunch!

Narrator 1: And that mean, ugly, old troll? He never came back to the bridge. He learned that being mean never pays.

Troll: This water feels like ice. Brrr Brrr Brrr, Next time I’ll try being nice!

All: The End.
Tomorrow
(From Frog and Toad by Arnold Lobel)

Toad: Drat! This house is a mess. I have so much work to do.

Frog: Toad you are right. It is a mess.

Toad: I will do it tomorrow. Today I will take life easy.

Frog: Toad, your pants and jacket are lying on the floor.

Toad: Tomorrow.

Frog: Your kitchen sink is filled with dirty dishes.

Toad: Tomorrow.

Frog: There is dust on your chairs.

Toad: Tomorrow.

Frog: Your windows need scrubbing. Your plants need watering.

Toad: Tomorrow.

Frog: Your bathroom is dirty, your living room is a mess, your grass needs to be cut.

Toad: Tomorrow tomorrow tomorrow! I will do it all tomorrow. Blah! I feel down in the dumps.

Frog: Why?

Toad: I am thinking about tomorrow. I am thinking about all of the many things that I will have to do.

Frog: Yes, tomorrow will be a very hard day for you.
Toad: But if I pick up my pants and jacket right now, then I will not have to pick them up tomorrow, will I?

Frog: No, you will not have to.

Toad: Frog if I wash my dishes right now, then I will not have to wash them tomorrow, will I?

Frog: No, you will not have to.

Toad: Frog, if I dust my chairs and scrub my windows and water my plants right now, then I will not have to do it tomorrow, will I?

Frog: No, you will not have to do any of it.

Toad: And if I scrub my bathroom, and clean my living room, and cut my lawn, I will not have it to do tomorrow, will I?

Frog: No. You your work will be done.

Toad: There, now I feel better. I am not in the dumps anymore.

Frog: Why?

Toad: Because I have done all that work. Now I can save tomorrow for something that I really want to do.

Frog: What is that?

Toad: Tomorrow I can just take life easy.

The people
Write it down
By the water
Who will make it?
You and I
What will they do?
He called me.
We had their dog.
What did they say?
When would you go?
No way
A number of people
One or two
How long are they?
More than the other
Come and get it.
How many words?
Part of the time
This is a good day.
Can you see?
Sit down.
Now and then
But not me
Go find her
Not now
Look for some people.
I like him.

So there you are.
Out of the water
A long time
We were here
Have you seen it?
Could you go?
One more time
We like to write.
All day long
Into the water
It’s about time
The other people
Up in the air
She said to go
Which way?
Each of us
He has it.
What are these?
If we were older
There was an old man
It’s no use
It may fall down.
With his mom
At your house
From my room
It’s been a long time.
Will you be good?
Give them to me.
Then we will go.
Now is the time
An angry cat
May I go first?
Write your name.
This is my cat.
That dog is big.
Get on the bus.
Two of us
Did you see it?
The first word
See the water
As big as the first
But not for me
When will we go?
How did they get it?
From here to there
Number two
More people
Look up
Go down
All or some
Did you like it?
A long way to go
When did they go?
For some of your people
The Fluency Development Lesson (FDL): Synergistic Fluency Instruction

Timothy Rasinski

Time Requirement: 15-25 minutes per day.

Texts: A daily brief text (poem, song, story segment). Make two copies for each student. Make a display copy for communal reading. (The display copy as well as one of the paper copies may have the text marked for phrase boundaries).

PART 1

1. The teacher introduces a new short text and reads it to the students two or three times while the students follow along silently. The text can be read by the teacher in a variety of ways and voices.

2. The teacher and students discuss the nature and content of the passage as well as the quality of teacher’s reading of the passage.
3. Teacher and students read the passage chorally several times. Antiphonal reading and other variations are used to create variety and maintain engagement.

4. The teacher organizes student into pairs or trios. Each student practices the passage three times while his or her partner listens and provides support and encouragement.

5. Individuals and groups of students perform their reading for the class or other audience such as another class, a parent visitor, the school principal, or another teacher.
PART 2

6. The students and their teacher then choose 4 to 5 interesting words from the text to add to the individual students’ word banks and/or the classroom word wall.

7. Students engage in 5-10 minutes of word study activities (e.g. word sorts with word bank words, word walls, flash card practice, defining words, word games, etc.)
PART 3

8. The students take a copy of the passage home to practice with parents and other family members.

9. The following day students read the passage from the previous day to the teacher or a fellow student for accuracy and fluency. Words from the previous day are also read, reread, grouped, and sorted by students and groups of students. Students may also read the passage to the teacher or a partner who checks for fluency and accuracy.

10. The instructional routine then begins again with step #1 using a new passage.

Jabberwocky (part 2)

One, two! One, two! And through and through
The vorpal blade went snicker-snack!
He left it dead, and with its head
He went galumphing back.

"And hast thou slain the Jabberwock?
Come to my arms, my beamish boy!
O frabjous day! Callooh! Callay!"
He chortled in his joy.

'Twas brillig, and the slithy toves
Did gyre and gimble in the wabe;
All mimsy were the borogoves,
And the mome raths outgrabe.
Fast Start for Beginning Readers, their Teachers, and their Parents.

Fast Start is an adaptation of the Fluency Development Lesson.

- A daily poem or rhyme

- An instructional mantra
  - Read to …
  - Read with…
  - Listen to your child read to you…

- Engage in word study activities

Little Bo Peep

Has lost her sheep,
And doesn't know where to find them.
Leave them alone,
And they'll come home,
Wagging their tails behind them.
Little Bo Peep

Looking at Words and Letters

- 1. Ask your child to find and circle the r's.
- 2. Ask your child to find and circle the two lines in the poem that have only three words.
- 3. Say, I'll say two words. You raise your hand if they begin the same:
  little, lost peep, bo lost, leave
- 4. Ask your child to count all the words in the poem.
- 5. Ask your child to point to the top, then the bottom, of the poem.

Playing With Sounds

- 1. Say, listen while I clap (or tap) the beats of the poem. Now let's clap (or tap) the beats of the poem together.
- 2. Ask your child how many beats are in these words: little (2), lost (1), leave (1), wagging (2).
- 3. Say, I'll say two words. Clap your hands if they rhyme:
  alone, them sheep, peep come, home

Beginning to Read

- 1. Ask your child to find and circle words with a long "o". (Bo, know, alone, home)
- 2. Say, I'll say a word. You tell me the last sound in it: peep, lost, them, tails.
- 3. Ask your child to find the words with two syllables or beats and to underline them.
  (little, doesn't, alone, wagging, behind)
- 4. Write sheep on a sheet of paper. Point out the -eep word family. Together, brainstorm, write, and read other words that rhyme and belong to the word family.
- 5. Together, choose two or three words from the poem. Add them to your word wall and practice these words daily. Or add them to your child's word bank (a collection of words on cards, one word per card).
